

Art & Museums

Cool Art Show set for July 18-19

Article published on Monday, July 6, 2009

ST. PETERSBURG - The 21st annual Cool Art Show is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, July 18-19, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the historic Coliseum, 535 Fourth Ave. N., St. Petersburg.

Cool Art Show is a juried, members-only Fine Art and Fine Craft Show hosted by PAVA, the Professional Association of Visual Artists.

Admission and parking are free, and the Coliseum's food and beverage concessions will be open to the public including beer and wine.

The Cool Art Show arrives in the midst of summer, oblivious to heat and storms, as a cool indoor retreat comprised of approximately 80 regional and statewide artists. These fine artists represent excellence in a variety of mediums, including painting, sculpture, metalwork, wood, glass, pottery, mixed media and jewelry.

Jewelry by Christina Paluszek

This year's selection of artists promises an extraordinary cache of creative visual and functional art for attendees.

PAVA is a nonprofit organization run by volunteer artists to serve local artisans and support the arts community in the Tampa Bay area. It provides exhibition and educational opportunities, quarterly publications and many other resources for its members.

For more information, visit www.coolartshow.com or call the Coliseum at 727-892-5202.

Article published on Monday, July 6, 2009

Copyright © Tampa Bay Newspapers: All rights reserved.